ECHOES OF THE HEARTLAND

Humanities speaker series returns for 2024!

Hear the voices of Nebraska's rich past from speakers from Humanities Nebraska about history, music, and legends. Topics include Nebraska's underground railroad, myths of women's madness on the plain, how Nebraska earned the name "Mad Queen of the Prairies," and much more! A full schedule is available on our online calendar. You can also visit the Echoes of the Heartland page on our website at www.hastingslibrary.us for more details about each program. The series will include 12 events from February through December.

1000 BOOKS BEFORE KINDERGARTEN

This free program encourages interactive reading between parents and children from infancy through entry into Kindergarten. In as little as 15 minutes a day, this self-paced program puts children on the path to becoming lifelong lovers of books. When completed, each child will have 21 new books for their home library. All you need to join is a library card!

For more information on how the program works, visit www.hastingslibrary.us or call to talk with a staff member.
