

RESIDENTIAL KNOX BOX LOAN AGREEMENT

Hastings Fire & Rescue has purchased Knox EMS residential key lock boxes with funds provided through grants from the Mary Lanning HealthCare Foundation and the Hastings Community Foundation. These boxes will be used for a short term loan to those individuals who have a diagnosed condition and may need immediate medical assistance. Once the resident's medical situation changes, the box will need to be returned to the Highland Park Fire Station.

Eligibility Rules

In order to be deemed eligible and loaned a Knox Box from Hastings Fire and Rescue a person must meet the following requirements:

1. Must reside within the Hastings City Limits.
2. Must have a doctor's letter explaining the medical or physical condition that could render you unable to open a locked door in the case of an emergency. This should also include an estimated time of need for the box.
3. The Knox Box will remain the property of Hastings Fire and Rescue and is only on loan to the resident for use at the address listed on the loan agreement.
4. The Knox Box shall be hung on the front door and participants are to provide Hastings Fire and Rescue with a key to that door, which will be placed inside the Knox Box.
5. Should the home owner change the locks, it is their responsibility to notify Hastings Fire and Rescue and provide us with a new key.
6. The loaner Knox Box shall be returned to Hastings Fire and Rescue when no longer needed due to medical condition.

I agree to use this box SERIAL # _____ as long as my medical condition justifies its usage. The Hastings Fire & Rescue will mount the box on the front door and lock the labeled keys inside the box. The box will be returned to the Hastings Fire & Rescue when the box is no longer needed. If the box is lost, stolen, damaged etc. I will be liable to replace the box at the current price.
